CTU to Match Funds Raised for Haiti Relief

Colorado Springs, CO – Colorado Technical University, Colorado Springs campus announced yesterday that they will match funds (collective) donated to the American Red Cross Pikes Peak Chapter for Haiti Disaster relief up to $2500. The generous commitment of CTU is critical to the ability of the American Red Cross to provide help and hope for the people of Haiti during their time of need,” said David Just, CEO of the American Red Cross Pikes Peak Chapter. “Our National office is rushing supplies and disaster management staff to Haiti in the aftermath of this earthquake, and are very grateful for the support of organizations like CTU for our humanitarian mission.”

Donations can be made to the American Red Cross Pikes Peak Chapter at www.pparc.org , by calling 719-632-3563, or by mailing a check to 1040 S. 8th Street, Colorado Springs, CO 80905.

More information about CTU and the programs that they offer can be found at <http://coloradotech.edu/Colorado-Springs> or by calling 1-866-942-6555.

The American Red Cross shelters, feeds and provides emotional support to victims of disasters; supplies nearly half of the nation's blood; teaches lifesaving skills; provides international humanitarian aid; and supports military members and their families. The Red Cross is a charitable organization — not a government agency — and depends on volunteers and the generosity of the American public to perform its mission. For more information, please contact the Pikes Peak Chapter at 719-632-3563 or visit www.pparc.org.
