American Red Cross and Wal-Mart stores of Pueblo County Partner to Provide Water to Zinno Subdivision Residents.

Pueblo, CO – Volunteers from the American Red Cross Southeast Branch are transporting water to the Zinno Subdivision in Pueblo for residents who have been without water since Saturday. North side, Southside, and Pueblo West Wal-Mart Stores have generously donated 150 cases of water for the American Red Cross to distribute to residents. Volunteers distributed water at 9:00 am this morning and will be distributing water again at noon. Ninety seven homes in the subdivision have been without water since Saturday.

Questions related to water distribution should be directed to:

The American Red Cross helps people prevent, prepare for and respond to emergencies. Last year, almost a million volunteers and 35,000 employees helped victims of almost 75,000 disasters; taught lifesaving skills to millions; and helped U.S. service members separated from their families stay connected. Almost 4 million people gave blood through the Red Cross, the largest supplier of blood and blood products in the United States. The American Red Cross is part of the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement. An average of 91 cents of every dollar the Red Cross spends is invested in humanitarian services and programs. The Red Cross is not a government agency; it relies on donations of time, money, and blood to do its work. Contributions to the American Red Cross may be sent to American Red Cross Pikes Peak Chapter, 1040 S. 8th Street, Colorado Springs, CO 80906. WWW.PPARC.ORG
