

Are You Ready to Save a Life?

Learn How...During National CPR/AED Awareness Week

June 1-7, 2008 marks the first National CPR/AED Awareness Week. Learn the skills that could save the life of a friend, family member or co-worker. In less time than you think, American Red Cross training can give you the vital knowledge and skills to respond to a life-threatening situation with confidence. Accidents and emergencies can happen to anyone - being prepared could make a lifesaving difference. Registered, active Pikes Peak Red Cross volunteers can take any combination of the Lay Responder basic First Aid, Infant, Child and Adult CPR/AED at the following discounted rates:

Adult CPR/AED - $8.80

Infant, Child & Adult CPR/AED - $16.05

First Aid/Adult CPR/AED - $17.80

First Aid/Infant, Child & Adult CPR/AED - $25.05

For the schedule of classes, visit our website at <http://www.pparc.org/trained/classes.php>. You must call and speak to someone in the Health & Safety Department to register in order to receive your discount. Give Donna a call at (719) 785-2718 if you have any questions! Volunteers from the Pueblo office can call Jeanette
